

CHRIS GRAEBER

Chris Graeber is the Chief Operating Officer of Complete Landsculpture where he focuses on business development, client services, marketing, and employee development. Growing up in Texas and attending Texas Tech University, where he received a BS in Landscape Architecture, gave Chris many accolades to pursue a career in landscape.

Chris is a registered landscape architect in the State of Texas with 30 years of management experience. He directed his own company for almost twenty years before selling the entire operation to what is now TruGreen-Land Care.

His expertise includes management of installation and maintenance services, hardscape construction, irrigation, and sports field construction.

Chris is a Texas Certified Landscape Professional (TNLA) and he has served as President on the Board of Directors for the Texas Association of Landscape Contractors (Dallas Chapter). During his tenure, he was involved in developing community projects for the Dallas Children's Advocacy Center and the Heard Natural Wildlife Museum. He has also been involved in the development of fund raising projects and enhancing community awareness of the industry and association.

Chris has been awarded Contractor of the Year and Member of the Year from the Texas Association of Landscape Contractors, Dallas Chapter. His projects have received various environmental improvements awards.

Outside the office, Chris enjoys traveling and spending time with family.
